3. GUEST SPEAKER – Luke Bates – State Manager Qld & N.T.

Luke acknowledged the 3 Golf Australia Board Members, Michele, Judy and Peter Reeves who is a new Board Member.

Luke presented a PowerPoint presentation with relation to a variety of statistics showing increasing numbers of people playing golf. Ways to encourage more women into golf. Female membership average age is 65 years. Talked about the Australian Golf Strategy, the Golf Australia Newsletter anyone may subscribe, Vision 2025, the Junior Girls Scholarship Program, Visionary of the year 2022, Get into Golf Women' program.

Luke mentioned that he will email his presentation to the BDLGA to share with all our District Clubs.

Luke introduced Peter Reeves.

Peter thanked Luke and advised that he was keen to introduce himself to our members. The aims of Golf Australia are to become more efficient and to stop duplicating back-office work, to work better with the District's, once again to reduce duplication and to have more Men and Women playing in competitions together.

Question to Peter: Sue asked "why can't we have a rule whereby the women's handicap is adjusted when playing against the men in a Medley competition.

There was further discussion with Luke relating to this matter and he advised that Golf Australia would review it.

Sue thanked Luke for his presentation.

4. MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT – Sue Strong, President

Sue advised the members about a new program that we have introduced, the "BDLGA Club Assistance Program". Sue explained that it was a grant-based initiative to assist our member clubs to benefit women and junior girls. The total cost distribution of the grant is $11,000 (incl GST) for a project that a club wishes to develop to benefit the female members only and gave examples of some projects that would be helping the women members.

A handout of the "BDLGA Club Assistance Program" was given to all attendees, as well as advising that all the information and the application form will be on our website.

Sue asked Lila to speak on the BDLGA District Brooch.

Lila advised that the BDLGA are offering members the opportunity to compete for a BDLGA District Brooch. Lila advised the Conditions of Play and that the Club Captains were responsible for submitting the completed form to the Secretary, BDLGA.

The District Brooch forms and Conditions of Play are on our website.
