CODE OF CONDUCT
REPRESENTATIVE PLAYERS / JUNIOR REPRESENTATIVE PLAYERS

The Brisbane and District Ladies Golf Association (BDLGA) has high expectations of the conduct of our representative players.

Players will not undertake any of the following (non-exclusive) activities:

1. Use or supply of drugs (unless required for medical conditions).
2. Smoking, alcoholic beverages and late nights will not be tolerated.
3. Enter nightclubs or bars at any time.
4. Souvenir any property which is not their own or commit any law-breaking offense.
5. Accept any invitation unless permission has been obtained from the Team Manager.
6. Leave their place of accommodation without permission from the Team Manager and/or officials in charge of the group.
7. Venture off on her own. Players must be accompanied by at least two other players or preferably a group and only then with permission from the Team Manager.
8. Mobile phones will be used at the Team Manager's discretion.
9. Use of objectionable or obscene language or gesture.
10. Engage in any activity likely to compromise the reputation of the BDLGA.

Junior Representative players are expected to:

1. Follow all directions and respect the position of Captain and Team Manager.
2. Always act responsibly whether with the entire group or separate.
3. Understand and respect cultural differences and behave with sensitivity and due consideration of others.
4. Follow all regulations and codes specified by places of accommodation.
5. Be a good sport and support team members.
6. Cooperate with your Team Captain and teammates. Show respect for your opponents and their skills.
7. Be friendly to all participants.
8. Comply with the National Integrity Framework (available on the BDLGA website at https://bdlga.com.au/resources/ under Legal, Fees, Policies / Policies and Procedures when dealing with children and youths in sport).
9. At all times observe this BDLGA Code of Conduct.

Serious breach of the CODE of CONDUCT will result in the player being sent home by the first available transport. Any additional expense incurred will be the responsibility of the person concerned.

I hereby confirm I read or had explained the Code of Conduct and understand its nature and the purpose of the document.
